Only a Fool

9/78

Bb Gm7 Cg
Only a fool would dare deceive you
No fooling whose the truth
But a psychopath may lead you
By embracing minds like sippy soup Your man may have found a key There's nothing hidden we can't see And soon by Mercy will be out of tools — oh my
On his knees — glad that he's — only a fool

Bb Gm7 Cg
Only a fool would think his thoughts produced
When there (there) it's not Only a fool would dare to try improve a universe he cannot even touch Rather than break the news or blow the whistle and scatter his studies He's with them on some tools — oh my Not detached — only a fool.

Bb Gm7 Cg
Only a fool could have believe What he held He'll go swimming in the river and keep talking to himself of letters he's got quite a few He bows to them like angels doesn't leave this hell hole for them tools he's — Only a fool
Come to Me
