

g/a

(G) E m

① What once was a proud lady in a poor old gal
 I've seen her mean before but not so sick as now

~~Just this proud lady~~
 She is poor old gal

Poor Old Gal 4/83

② now she puts on her dress - we cover her in lights white we are at our desks - gonna make her in fit Behind the glass doors is poor old gal you wouldn't know her anymore she's a poor old gal what once was a strong woman <sup>now</sup> is a <sup>weak</sup> ~~poor old gal~~ in her lap are dolls + doll houses in her eyes is motherhood's worst pain and in her ~~low~~ gasp she gives what ~~she~~ asked and in her dying gasp
 Do we ~~exclaim~~ <sup>shout</sup> ~~shout~~ Mourn for her oh poor old gal
 poor old gal