

If there's anything you don't admire
 In one that's driven by desire
 Then please tell me because I have a friend
 If there's anything that I am missing
 Please tell me and I will listen
 Sometimes like all I wish that this would end
 I hate life I hate life
 It's just because there is no place for rest
 I hate life I hate life
 Opposite it is what I do the best

Is there anything I've got mixed up
 Then I'd like to hear just what
 For instance can you show me it's a dance
 Is there anything more than just this
 Then please tell me just what that is
 I hate to throw away a precious chance

I love life; I love life
 Not defining it organically at all
 I love life; I love life
 But don't believe in you and me somehow
