When the tide is on the full
We walk by the moonstones
It must be quite wonderful

~~Creatures of the sea~~ ~~surely have~~ ~~words~~ like the land ~~chill~~ in the breeze

Details of the waves come in

By dozens and incessantly Rocks they slap age new and then Even on ~~rocks~~

Erosion makes us always new We will take it if we were able ~~disappointed~~ Ears out in the rush that blows and wind know by what in the way Joyful is the land that sews these signs we see indicating something to this unseen going.

you will have some answers you will use your fame things go by the same
They will help like dancers
