

Sept. 76

anywords with do

anywords with do - anything you see with find its way anything will pass - many things go by + by though they don't last

We can hardly even help - everything comes out + rolls about

In spite it seems of us - living sideways on the highways.

highways highways highways ah ah ah ah living sideways on the highways makes the twin rough rough enough - rough enough section lost ends in the cross winds makes the twin rough

Makes the twin rough - rough enough you don't say halleluya when you see what they don't say you speak promised land when you see what you don't see who says throw it all away there's no way out

No way out no way out no way out you can look above the treetops you can look behind your head you can look over yonder " " " under your bed

" " " in religion or in a sea of dusty lands

No way out No way out No way out

etc. - responds (up & down) highways.
