

Im your long lost friend

May 76

Did you ever feel you'd left someone stranded behind
Wanted a service station for you to turn around
You never did remember although for a bit it tugged at your mind

There he is outside he's still waiting there

By that 55 gal. drum

Fully expecting for you in your buggy to come

a surgin

Im your long lost friend; Im your long lost friend
Coun' back once again; Im your long lost friend.

Were you ever alone in the city with nothing to do and desperately longed for some other mouth and ear.

Nothing but looking for else was happening to you
There he is he's been let down too

Leaning on the pinball machine

Someone you don't care that nobody's ever seen
He's muttering Ch.

Sitting chronicl dipping in coffee set before into brewed
The children are grumbled they spit in they sub in they stew

Hands upon your goodwill dress

Eyes rolling out on the rocky sea blue

Been waitin long for a fog

That we cannot see through Ch.

... I left you behind ... a bean of a ...

That we can't see through Ch.

you've left me behind, you're a bean of my mind
I'll never do it again, for you're lost friend.
