Am DMX CM7

It's 6:24 feet on the floor CM7

Glass on the table, knot on the door

I'd really love to tell you more
But I can't find a way, the sunset was so beautiful

Walked out the side - started to slide

Noted a 4x4 - out for a ride

On my feet that into pathways pined
I yelled and it waved, the sunset

Oh so beautiful that I just stood there flinching

The ocean was ~~the~~ ~~flashing~~ mirror and the clouds find the vast ocean and were up on the cliff there much Everything was so God damn beautiful

Down in the parking lot somebody started up an engine

I was so grate full - because they broke the fence

Went back to the den - took out my pen
I wrote a long letter and read the night

I loved its gorgeous and that she was and I heard it also say - The sunset
