

Look very closely again
You're my friend too
don't you know
Feeling the fabric tears and mud

Watching things come and go
Let us be alone
Just do what we must do
Sit on the floor, polish a stone.
I'll always be with you
Don't turn away; it's been too long
I want you to stay here
Forget you feel there's something wrong

Spring along
~~With your fears~~
~~But I'll be there~~

Here's the companion
" " peace

Nothing known or unknown
Maybe walk out among the trees
You are always at home
