B in

Doubtless you're making cookies now

EBM?

somebody's helping out

I have no shadow of doubt your heavenly ^{our} tender message

Flowless there are your cookies painted

Designs not anticipated

Once the cookies get well acquainted

They'll give us all their best messages and ^{flitting} through the room are ^{knitted} and wires and tubes through which I visit you

I can see you waving back

I can see you throw a smack

I can see you going back

Controlling at the table the kitchen because
I can see you waving back
I can see you throw a smack
I can see you going back
