

Enough is Enough

5/7

Enough is enough she had said you're up here and I'm pretty damn fed with this bullshit you got in your head
 I went for a walk instead of ~~the house~~ pouring my heart
 You can she say this to me
 I'm trying to cope with the force that is Why doesn't she respect sincerity
 As I went on this evening breeze starts up

Cool wind blows - makes me
 Through my clothes - got the run of me
 One of those - things you can't defy
 Sure it knows - how to clarify
 Cool wind blows - makes me
 it hums its noise at ~~me~~

I was emboldened - ~~in~~ in front of the sea
 I tried not to snort but it conquered me

Cool wind blows makes me
 Better than by who should come to see

The cool wind blow makes me
 Enough is enough she had said

Enough in your hands and enough in your head
 Why don't you just do without dear me

I took out the trash I think about myself than the

Cool wind ~~blows~~ blow makes me
 I was so self-importantly

In the throes of my misery
 Hope it knows what it's done to me

Cool wind blows makes me
 I would be shown as pompous and when I take myself too seriously

 I find the cool wind makes me
