

Don't Want an Old Man's Wisdom when I'm young 7/79 43

Eye dropped by wadent out a the sky
He was actin like a stone Followed round some ~~guru~~ guru ~~brown~~ <sup>guru</sup> ~~brown~~ ~~who~~ had passively dragged along He said this here's sage - he's heavy gage and never blows his cool Don't yearn or grab or burn or gab like somebody + won't drool Glad to meet you + bowed to sage and wonderfully he bowed back Now my friend Bin was kept in all signs he was a fact Not to rock the boat + sweat no nervous
But soon as they left + danced a bit a way

Don't Want an Old Man's Wisdom when I'm young I'll take a young man's wisdom but I don't want to get old and have an old man's wisdom that I can't use.

Don't Want an Old Man's Wisdom when I'm young

There's times teachers with dand features who act like the tots they are Met young geniuses with hungry pences who can teach up a storm There's middle age ladies like them crazies help them to make sense There's ~~various~~ <sup>various</sup> sages of various ages who grow old by accident if ~~there~~ they ripen we ~~with~~ <sup>love</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~way~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~way~~ <sup>way</sup> they went

But do they point with ~~right~~ <sup>right</sup> ~~font~~ <sup>font</sup> to where we've done it best But nobody listens to what they say but copy something of angles and praise them for being old and grey and point to normal ~~grown~~ <sup>grown</sup> adults
But I don't want an old man's wisdom when I'm young
