

5/29 Nobody knows what we are

It's a little known fact that is known ~~well~~ ^{to us} all
To the smart and the short and the dunce and the tall It's the common conundrum ~~to us~~ we never quite ask to the beast and the man and the yeast and the grass we can walk on the moon ~~with~~ ⁱⁿ seran wrap + spoons left tables. and drive in a car But nobody knows what we are what we are

Nobody " " " " " " nobody knows what we are an amazing event that is being as heck to the ~~that~~ narrow the same to the fat + the wreck avoided by geniuses and pondered by fools as well as commuters in their motorpools

We can juggle our hearts be conversant with words Send letters through strangers ~~together~~ ^{after}

Doddledy etc - - -
