

Went over to North Beach to see my friend
I saw no rope hanging down from his window
Then I knew - Lulu's gone ~~at his house~~

Gone to Hawaii her daughter said
Packed up her favorite paintings + took off
Wouldn't you - Lulu's gone ~~(S)~~

Lulu's gone - gone

Often I'd whistle out on the deck
Then we meet up as few others do
Now no Lu - Lulu's gone

Soft tiny pictures from her warm hands
Now ~~can't~~ ^{can't} go halfway over the ocean
To see what's new - Lulu's gone [Ch]

Lulu when you giggle/hon - you save me from the blues
Lulu when you ~~sings~~ hon - we love our girls our eyes they
If I were a bulldog I'd say bless your soul
Lulu Lulu when you go

I'll write no letter a song for her
Sort of a cliche that's not quite complete.
She'll know I knew - Lulu's gone
She's painted a picture that she can't lose
Now she need not visit from Hawaii - To Conclude
