

Everybody has a dark side 181

You ask me why I stay
Well darling you are a beautiful woman
Your smells drive me wild
Everybody has a dark side

You ask me what to do
Well darling you are on earth
Your feet fit the ground
Your hands are sharpened
Everybody has a dark side

You ask me where's the heart
Well darling you are kind and good
Your pulses are waiting for you
She who can be trusted is home
Everybody has a dark side

Something like that Maybe not like that anyway Honey ~~who is it~~
who is it it gives us depth
We all got it
