

There aint much time for down what we've wanted
No - there aint much time
There aint much time for down what we've wanted
No - there aint much time
But if we can we'll wait until It's all a show the course is ~~and see our, invested efforts~~ ~~and when it comes so that~~ we'll pick ourselves up and stand on our feet and cry for the bitter laugh for the sweet always ending in rot and defeat and there aint no place for down what we've wanted
No - there
