

I read the advertisement
~~the way~~

You all know what they say?
They say you'll come a long way baby

They say

They say you'll become a long way baby

That's what the ad said
Baby you've come a long way

But now we know better

~~what we know~~ I learned the truth in a magazine
It fell to the letter in a picture spelled on a sweet

Yours truly baby

And you'll come a long way

Hear the horse go by deep in the dark of the night
Is he coming for me or you
Is he coming for my child
