

I hung your clothes ^(Blouse) out on the line Feb 78 Ams

I really had a time

You're sitting at your desk away at school ^{B69} you crazy fool ⁶

I put some clothespins in my teeth
Some got away from me
Strung a row of sopping clothes that drool
My hands were cool and toes were cold too in the breeze and dampened leaves

The ground was hanging up today as well
And so do I tell

I put the laundry basket down
Pulled each ~~item~~ out
Overlapped and clipped them a few feet
But I did well

at each panty and each blouse I'd sigh
How the time goes by You've got some sunnyside socks there
So does Kelly so do I - From where do they arise

I hung your laundry up today - you're not so far away
The stars and ocean grey at Sunnyside ^{B69}

and dampened leaves
The ground was hanging up today as well
And so do I tell

I put the laundry basket down
Pulled each ~~item~~ out
Overlapped and clipped them a few feet
But I did well

at each pants and each blouse I'd sigh
How the time goes by You've got some unmatched socks there
So does Kelly so do I - From where do they arise

I hung your laundry up today -
You're not so far away
The sky and ocean grey
It sure looks like rain.
