I'm a Fool Again

Now when I was a young fool as often the story begins
 We used to do ridiculous stuff especially on the weekends
 Now I regard much wiser as often the story goes
 Careful how we ~~try~~ write following the most
 Despite the tries to hide and use, changed all its been Sometimes trip on a disguise then I'm a fool again.

Oh when I was a ~~prude~~ as papa used to call
 Jesus we did the dumbest things God we were off the wall
 Now that I have grown up as usually kids do
 Consider these acts as gems of stupidity that we have all outgrown
 And when I'm feeling right in proud it turns into a grin
 The system melts or just breaks down and I'm a fool again.

When I was back in high school I'll remember walking down
 When I was a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again
 Now much more respectful of ~~adult~~ people's face
 Careful that its not caught doing something off out any place
 But just at the peak of dignity, I stumble in front of people
 Who point and laugh and split their sides and I'm a fool again
 I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again
 I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again

When I think of the things I've done how many times I've fell
 It's a mind misleads & made it to this old
 Never again be ^{such a} dumbbell Always be controlled
 Wear a tur out to the flux and a wool cap in the cold
 Just when things seem certain I'm ~~found~~ ~~masked~~ as seen
 Open up the curtain and I'm a fool again
 I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again
 When I was a dropout fits everybody did
 I spent my days in foolery ways
 That had their programs kid
 Assuming that its all behind and were swimming in our sock
 We depend on things that would not tempt a nervous rock
 Hold on till we hear the call of the ancient word
 Make a besth on a two three issue and I'm a fool again

I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again

When I was back in high school I'll remember walking down
What were I doing I was getting hit down

Now much more careful that its not caught in my face
Careful that its not caught in my face

But just at the peak of dignity, I stumble in front of people
Who point and laugh and split their sides and find a fool again

I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again
I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again

I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again

When I think of the things I've done how many times I've told
It's a mind mistake I made it to this old

Never you be such a dumbbell Always be controlled
Wear a turban out to the flux and a wool scarf in the cold

Just when things seem certain I'm suddenly misled as seen
Opening up the curtain and I'm a fool again

I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again
I'm a fool I'm a fool I'm a fool again I'm a fool I'm a fool again

When I was a dropout like everybody did
I spent my days in foolish ways

That had their programs and
Assuming that its all behind and were swimming in our socks
We depend on things that would not tempt a nervous rock

Hold on till we hear the call of the ancient word
Take a breath one two three jump and I'm a fool again
