

Painting out the wall (dropped) (Jan) EM 71

Now I sit in a sunny chair on the porch Tuesday afternoon
There is nothing natural here from joining a garden left and I stare at my room in a lazy southern drawl at the canvas and the oil that are the painting out

Now my son has left a mess of that plus some more There are magazines, toys, clothes, debris to this room's hozer

Soon I will turn on KJAZZ and sweep and clean it all But for now I sit here gazing at the painting on the wall.

Now ⁶⁹ until you been down on ^{6m} Apple Beach
With a paint brush in your eye I'm glad nobody pulled it out you sure got the reflection refraction low I got 6m

Now ^{out} he is there playing with some Mozart on the keys
In an hour I could be there with her walking on the beach at these where the artists gather to call instead All spend day here with the painting on the wall soft light
