

It stands it leans it bends it falls
It defends with broken walls
It sways it moves it cracks it breaks
It shakes it shelters sheds and quakes

It winds it threads it winds in beds
It has mouths and it has heads
It has shoulders and wets
It bends and sings
~~It has banners and it has rings~~
It grows it rolls it flings

It waves, it lifts, it blows it drifts
It creates, the dyes, and drifts
It chills, it brings, it stops, it flies
It spins, it swirls, it hides, it sighs

It loves, it hates, it bears, it kills
It wishes, wants, it fears, it yields
It creates, sees, discovers, lies
It subverts and it defies
It trembles is born and it dies

the end
