

Why Should a Black Man Care

Ain't gonna be no social equality if there ain't no society
And don't think it's gonna sap my will.
When I yell about this overtill

[Why should a black man care if the world go boom
If the world go boom (REPEAT)]
It's his ass too (3x)
the same goes for you

CHORUS

And to those of you under the heel
I know how bad it feels
But this could well be the glue
That's just waiting for me and you

CHORUS

Struggle is our spirit and strength
To struggle is to win
Gonna be no struggle if there ain't no people
And that's as bad as it can get

CHORUS
