

broon it.

repeat { Why should the black man care if the world goes to hell
The same goes for you

(speaker can rephrase for suit this character)
I ain't young be up so special equality if there ain't no social support Don't think you're gonna get it you gotta get it and to those of you under the heel I know how bad that feels But this could well be the glue that's waiting for you me & you

If there's nobody here that includes let us join them to better our plight and lets start with this summer night

Gonna be no struggle if there's no people that But things ain't got that bad that's the case the struggle is here