

Love, Sweet Love, has buried me Today

<sup>E</sup> Truer words were never spoken

<sup>A9</sup> Firmer heart was never broken

<sup>Abm7</sup> From my dream I have awoken

Greater faith was never shaken
I just said; "for goodness sake" in Hoped that from the wake I'd awaken
Love

Ch. { True to form I hoped that all
My stories would come clear Scared of death I held my breath and hoped that it could turn around again or disappear

Colder night has never wintered
Loner room I've never entered Somethin' missing, nothing centered,
Love

Chorus

Sweeter bed was never waiting
Broken pieces of me mating
Into softer sleep in fading
Love
