

Motions of the cold keep surfacing anew
Forgotten plots of old their fished finally knew
Take the case of one who came to a room
Instead of slipping mind had left at all behind

Made her stand in a tub
The only one who saw Just like the monkey paw a torso not a hand

she quickly grabbed and snatched it screaming
and now so far escaped - a motel on the road Behind was all her dread and sat to take off hose then in the corner of her eye
a mass production replica a statue only one ft. high

Did she then snap or hasty resolution close her eyes
That dinner

~~That dinner~~

Motions of the Cold keep surfacing anew
Forgotten plots of old their fished finally knew
Take the case of one who came to a room
Instead of slipping mind had left at all behind

Made her stand in a tub
The only one who saw - a statue on a stand Just like the monkey paw - a torso not a hand against in the blood of the words she had said
she quickly grabbed and snatched it screaming

Some folks from Kansas through a door stuck theater
and now so far escaped - a motel on the road Behind she left her dread and sat to take off hose
then in the corner of her eye
a mass production replica a statue only one ft. high Did she then snap or hasty resolution close her eyes, That dinner
