

Words a word, Form is a word - They don't help you miss you
Life is horrible + were all caught in fears
Gone too soon shines the sign - we could hug you + miss you
There's no birth there's no death + we'll miss you
No delusion - No enlightenment - No suffering - nor end to it
Just this ~~birth~~ born of fears
There's no birth - There's no death + we'll miss you

You were born and you died / you had a ma you had a dad
I built at your funeral - as we said goodbye
There was nothing + could say for if that I would of cried
- you were here you are ~~gone~~ / you and us, now you're past
+ stared at your ashes - once so thin and blonde
Was torn between this sad life and the wisdom gone beyond

~~Form is Void~~ Form is Void, Void is form - they're no different
~~There's no feeling~~ There's no feeling, perception - memory or no lead
There's no body, there's no mind - Now here this
There's no birth - there's no death + we'll miss you

You grew up - you grew out / you were love + about
Worked on that bike as a kiddo rode in back
Wed pass, bow, smile, say hi - maybe stop + have a chat
