

When the day comes down, Oh when the day comes down
Dotted corners never guess, congregations can't confess
Pancake in windows dress, geezers in the park play chess
Subways always rattle pass, shoppers looking through the glass
Tillywinkers look and linger, Zoot suit games poppin' fingers
Dipped doodle and her noodle hangin' out with local strodle

Oh when the day comes down, Oh when the day comes down
Oh when the deadly day comes down on
Down on poor head, layin' to rest, shedding one's gown
Oh when the day comes down, Oh when the day comes down
Oh when the deadly day comes down on.

Oh when the day comes down, evidence will not abound
Caravans won't change timetables, horses nibbling in the stables
Bridges hangin' on their cables, people driven still by fables
Ganglia won't cease to dangle on the highways traffic strangled
Goodbye pervades eternal, Hottis and monsters be diurnal
Billy's with soldiers; winning wars and getting older

Oh when the day comes down, genes and nations won't be found
Readerships will miss the moment, radicals will foam and fount
Paupers pause to pass the pepper, leapers only land on lepers
Feeders only see the strippers, lovers look at little dippers
Armagedon hemoglobin, thought the host sea of hobgoblins
Apocalypse not history's global, Sir Bumpkin only war to foible

Oh when the day comes down, find the body of a clown,
Leviathans with looking glasses, nothing happens of the classes,
Sacred masses going pass us, hiding hoodlum surely pass us,
Calenders with never note, Prophets cannot see the root,
Siblings seething in their playing, actus cuddling regards stray
Coddled eggs or Benedictus cannot beg, Seal or predictus

When the day comes; Face on knees the gate of sun
Left hand hold a dolor claw, Right hand bowl of Everest sun
Reciting them the extent of dream; to make you big for what will come