53

Workers of the World unite 8/79

D7 F7 BbM7 Eb9 A7 GM7 CM9 GM7 CM9
FbM9 A9 CM7 A7

Workers of the World unite unite (repeat)
D7 F7 BbM7 Eb9 A7

CM7
Diggers of the ditches — blisters on your fingers
CM9 Toilers of the textiles — spinners, combers, seamsters
Packers and the jungle — wheels of your the carcass
Riggers in alaska — Oily shoes in parkas
Boys who built the railroad — waiting for your check now
Miners and your mindors — your lungs are quite a wreck now Sewers and the reapers — mowing with the seasons assemblers of the — in your lines a leaner
Truckers on the roadways — singles + your doubles
Builders of the cities — I know you got your troubles
Pushers of the — stacked upon your desks arrangers in the wharehouse — with the packing lists
Cleaners of our messes — in overalls + dresses
Servers cooks + bakers — drips + spoons + twists

Ch. CM7
Poisoners with your poison — you will not be erased soldiers with your ammo — you too have got a face Cops + guards + Wardens — we know you've got a long Execs + Doctors, Lawyers — you too have got your stuff actors, artists, + hippies — don't forget the critics Bartenders, druggists, pushers — you fit into the fabric
Ex terminators, Dog catchers — grave diggers Morticians
Car salesmen, advertizers — Electric chair electricians
Bill Collectors, millionaires — bums + hobos - starving masses Children with you + shovel — Old who try to find your places crippled sicks — disabled crazy, broke, retarded rapers, robbers, killers — rapists bleeders — tortunders + Vegetables — Presidents

Fantasizers + Fools + Fantasizers + Fools — Jumpers + Tumblers, nurses, rotting