

Tom White

oh well the Roman soldiers picked up them poor little baby boys by the feet and smashed their brains out on the floor (repeat) then they'll go out and salt the fields they sold all their fences in the woman's bag ten years later they'll come back again Prepare! Prepare! Prepare for the bad times oh ~~oh~~ Mercy on your souls Chillin you don't even know if there are soldiers you're so sweet you're so innocent you're so dumb ~~and saying to get guns~~ what you gonna do ~~to get alert~~ if you want to be ~~see things as they are~~ how they are it don't hurt Don't start panicking yourself

~~There's a million years of torture~~ ~~someone might judge you & bring you back~~ ~~just to torture you~~
