

You say she's the 1st Bitch X3

They say
She's got a pretty little gun X2

Sometimes I wish I had a gun too

Does that make her the 1st bitch X3

They say
Her hubby gave a sniper to a prisoner on the other side of the world
So they're into guns

Does that make her —

They say
She's into interior decorating of a house

Does that make her husband

Does that make her —

They say
She likes to eat out at fancy restaurants She likes to talk about people there and wear costly clothing and talk about it

Does that make her —

She worked hard for what she got I think some people are jealous of her and hate her for that

Does that make her

I've heard other things they've said about her about her forced smile
She can smile anyway she wants

Does that make her

Although I do wonder if she might hurt some peasants - millions of them around the world (struggling) to overthrow their oppressors and she sits out in restaurants with her oppressors and friends of their oppressors and I'm afraid that she might not take pity on them and members of their families may have their feet burned off or their eyes gouged out in real life like happens all the time in the 3rd world and I think she'd love to be with the eye gougers cause she'd never be with them when they were gouging and she won't meet any grieving peasants in her restaurants she goes to ~~the~~ But maybe she doesn't Does that make her the 1st Bitch ^{influence}

Give her a chance - I think possible thought If you pray - pray for her Don't make her the 1st Bitch

They say she interprets her husband They say she encourages " " "
" " " " " "
