

43 Castro Castro 1962

In 1959, a bearded cuban said:
Well battle with Batista Till his men and he have fled ~~But~~ Batista he was with a sword was Fidel

Then Castro told the whole damn World to Prouts go to Hell
So now lets Castro Castro He's gone a little far lets Castro Castro

Will stomp out his cigar He's nothing but a dummy
That K. is got for here Will punch him more, in stomp his toes, in set his beard on fire.

at first he told the world that for freedom he had fought. Now we see that Karl Marx is the gift he brought Neither classification seems appropriate to me. I say that Castro's heinous system is an infidelity. (Chorus)

The U.S. has its crisis of self-determination.
But others only think that we mean our determination.

We've got the guns lets do it now to show them our desire Will punch him more and stomp his toes and set his beard on fire
