

Mommy + Daddy are Naked ³⁶

(Open D Fingering) Benjamin Winter '65
(see back for chole)

Mommy and Daddy are naked don't walk in

Don't break your trinkets

Don't steal

Run out and play

Don't Run away

Eat that meat

Sit and stare in your underwear

Don't be careful what you feel.

Don't swim in muddy water

So you don't sink

Don't listen to strangers

So you don't hear

See The big TV ; Don't hunt

Save your money to buy your wife a munt

Look closely at the appropriate books

When you're far off remember how mother looks

(Next to last verse)

Don't listen to me, I'm lost I've got nothin' to offer but idle thoughts.

I'm lazy and rude cause
I never was bossed
and your baby sister,
I'd love to be court

(Last Verse)

listen to reason, sign your name,
Natural answers, natural gain
Maximum security, minimum pain
Make your payments before it rains and the day that you die you'll be so glad that you came.

(one more)

You were born on this board you gotta play in the dugout

Money involved don't mind don't trust don't steal
